

Foundation of the ASNR Outstanding Contributions in Research Award

Deadline for all Nominations is October 22, 2020

PURPOSE: This award recognizes individuals who have demonstrated consistent excellence and lifelong accomplishment in basic or clinical neuroscience research, particularly funded research from the NIH, NSF, March of Dimes, etc.

ELIGIBILITY: A Senior ASNR member with long-term achievements in clinical or basic research.

ABOUT THE NOMINATION PROCESS: All members of the society may submit nominations as follows:

- Nominations must be submitted via email, citing a particular line of investigation, e.g., “Dr. X for his work with imaging of brain function and activation.”
- Letters of nomination must include one or two paragraphs of support (indicating what the nominee has accomplished).
- If possible, a CV of the nominee would be appreciated with the nomination, providing it does not compromise the confidentiality of the nomination. Please note: Confidentiality is essential. If possible, the candidate should not be aware of his/her nomination.

DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS: Please send nominations by Thursday, October 22, 2020; 9:00 AM Central Time to Theresa Espinosa at tespinosa@asnr.org. On the subject line of the email, indicate: 2021 Outstanding Contributions in Research Award. Attach your nomination letter (and nominee’s CV, if available, as a Word or PDF document.)

EXCLUSIONS: Current Officers of the Society, members of the Advisory Council, members of the Foundation Board of Trustees, and members of the Awards Committee are ineligible for nomination.

ABOUT THE SELECTION PROCESS: The Foundation Outstanding Contributions in Research Award recipient is selected by the ASNR Awards Committee. The ASNR Awards Committee is comprised of the following individuals:

- First past president
